A Ceremony to Remember

Soldier Recovery Units from Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio and Fort Cavazos, Killeen, recently gathered at Enchanted Rock for a day of hiking, relaxation and a memorable reenlistment ceremony. Known as a favorite destination for healing

Thanks to a few guests and the chaplain, candid photos were shared, capturing the spirit of the occasion. Following the hike, the group met at Western Edge Restaurant in Fredericksburg to enjoy lunch and celebrate the soldier's renewed commitment to service.

Enchanted Rock— 8 April 25

and reflection, the summit served as a symbolic setting for this special event. To preserve the significance of the moment, soldiers carried their uniforms in backpacks and changed at the top—honoring tradition without compromising protocol, as official photos in uniform were not permitted.

May 2-4 Family R&R

Thirteen families (approximately 48 people) arrived in Fredericksburg Friday afternoon ready for a weekend of relaxation and renewal. There were no planned activities except for the meals so they were free to do “family things”.

After checking into their lodging at the Inn on Baron’s Creek, they were free to explore until they needed to be at Bethany Lutheran Church for a home cooked meal.

Saturday was a beautiful day for being outdoors. Activities our guests enjoyed included main street shopping, visiting parks, enjoying the hotel pool, visiting both the Pioneer Museum and the Museum of the Pacific War and various art galleries. One family of 8 hiked Enchanted Rock. In between activities, everyone enjoyed lunch at Hondo’s on Main.

Saturday evening’s delicious meal was prepared and served by Holy Ghost Lutheran Church. After dinner some were taking their very tired children back to the hotel while others decided to check out Fredericksburg’s nightlife and enjoy some live music.

Warriors and their families enjoyed free lodging, meals, entrance to the museums and Enchanted Rock for the weekend thanks to the following:

Volunteers at both Bethany and Holy Ghost Churches donated, prepared and served the evening meals. They also made the families feel welcome by visiting with them over dinner.

Wounded Warriors at Nebo provided entrance to the museums and Enchanted Rock. They also covered lunch at Hondo’s (who always gives us special treatment) and the lodging at the Inn on Baron’s Creek.

These weekends would not happen without the support of local churches, volunteers, and merchants willing to give us a discount, and financial donations from individuals, churches and businesses. God Bless You All !!

Yes, it's worth it!!

Just as we wonder at times if what we are doing is helping anyone, you may have wondered if the support you provide the Wounded Warriors at Nebo Ministry is being put to good use. The answer to both those questions is yes, with your support, the ministry is helping those who have served to keep us free. We know this because from time to time we receive thank you cards from soldiers and acknowledgements from the military in addition to the many verbal expressions of gratitude.

Below are the most recent Certificates of Appreciation received from Fort Sam and Fort Cavazos:

Make a Veteran's Day

Kerrville VA Medical Center Nursing Home is home to several disabled veterans, some with no family close. You'd be surprised what thirty minutes to an hour of conversation with someone does to lift their spirits. It helps them feel less alone or forgotten. If you would like to make a new friend and thank him or her for their service, contact Elizabeth Fargason at efargason@outlook.com or Roylene Roberts at roylene8524@msn.com. You'll be glad you did.
